

Briefly, FCC rules must not be changed to allow additional monopolization of an already-compromised media system. This would be yet another Republican signal that our government is anti-democracy and pro-corporation. That is clearly wrong.